

The logo for the International Alliance for Sustainable Urbanization and Regeneration (IASUR) is centered at the top. It features the acronym 'IASUR' in a bold, sans-serif font. Below the acronym is a horizontal line. The entire logo is framed by a decorative border of stylized leaves and vines. At the top of the border, two mythical creatures, resembling phoenixes or dragons, are depicted with their wings spread, facing each other. The border continues down the sides and across the bottom, creating a rectangular frame around the central text.
